

Dear Pop;

glad to get your letter & I hope you pass your insurance examination. I can imagine how bored you must feel staying at home everyday, as womens daily conversation is rarely interesting to a guy whose been used to hearing the well colored stories of the "Boys" ~~(the boys)~~

All kidding aside, I'll bet you'll be glad to get in the harness again.

Last night I went to play I think you would have enjoyed seeing for old times sake.

It was a play given by members of Mason & Abbott Halls, called "Priority on Corn". It was one of those off the ~~off the~~ "off the" college plays they had fellows all fixed up like girls.

Some of the raw jokes had to be censored when they found out the Clean of Women was among the happy throng. It was run off in "Hellzapoppin" style with gags in the audience etc. On the whole it was pretty good of course there were some bad spots in it but we got kick out of seeing the fellows doing a lot of crazy stunts

Well I'll say so-long for now and take 'er cool

As Ever
